Protest ADA's Denial Of Negro To Membership

ATLANTIC, N. J. — A request to the American Dental Association to amend its constitution so Negro dentist will be eligible for members in the organization — this was made last week by Dr. Matthew Mitchell of Washington, D. C. president of the National Dental Association which represents about 1200 Negro dentists.

Dr. Mitchell made the request while he was addressing ADA's Trustees and Officers during their convention here. He also proposed to ADA members that:

(1) "Established lines of communication between the two groups be kept opened and widened."

(2) "That officers and trustees of ADA go on record as opposing membership requirements as proposed by some of the Southern States."

(3) "... That membership requirements in components of ADA that a dentist must be a graduate of an accredited dental college, licensed in the state in which he practices and maintain an ethical practice."

Dr. Mitchell reminded ADA that the National Dental Association was founded 50 years ago by a group of ethical practitioners who sought to foster mutual improvement after Negro dentists were denied membership in ADA.

He added "there are still some chapters of ADA denying Negroes membership because of the outdated 'laws and customs of certain states'. However, Negro dentists are protesting this and thousands of white dentists, members of ADA, are also protesting this racial discrimination."

NAACP Does Not Endorse Political Candidates Says President Turner

A large number of Negro citizens became disturbed over the distribution of a piece of political campaign literature, reportedly being circulated among large numbers of white citizens. The literature is aimed at doing political harm to Commissioner William "Bill" Farris and John Ford Canale among potential white voters, by accusing them of being "Endorsed and Supported by the NAACP."

A very reliable source has revealed that several Negro campaign workers were involved in gathering material for the campaign literature, which does not reveal a name of the organization publishing it.

Jesse H. Turner, president of the local NAACP, said: "It is not the policy of the NAACP to endorse any candidate in a political race. The local NAACP has not and will not endorse any candidate in the race. However, local NAACP members are also registered voters and many of them have promised to vote for Mr. Farris as well as many of the other candidates because they consider them the best qualified candidates in the race."

Below is an exact copy of the literature that was being circulated; which is reported to have been compiled by several Negroes; working for two

Local Minister Fatally Stricken During Heated Meeting At Church

Widow views body — Mrs. L. J. Peppers, in black, widow of the late Rev. L. J. Peppers, takes a last look at her husband's remains during funeral held at St. Jude Baptist church on last Monday. The minister was stricken during a heated argument in a business meeting at the church one week before his funeral and died last Friday at E. H. Crump Memorial hospital. He was 51. (Withers Photo).

Large Crowd At Rites For Rev. Peppers

The St. Jude Baptist church was filled last Monday morning with both mourners and the curious, who had come to the funeral of the pastor, who died a few days after being stricken in the pulpit while in a heated argument with one of the members.

Rev. L. J. Peppers, pastor of St. Jude Baptist church at 853 East Trigg, died last Friday morning in E. H. Crump Memorial hospital at the age of 51. He had been pastor of St. Jude since 1960, and had built the new church for the congregation.

Rev. Peppers was stricken during a heated business meeting which had been held at the church on Monday evening, Oct. 28, and which had brought more than 250 persons there.

BROUGHT TAPE RECORDER
The meeting had not gotten started, Mrs. Peppers told the Tri-State Defender before the pastor discovered that the public address system was turned off. He discovered that a tape recorder had been plugged in.

Mrs. Peppers said that it was a fact that some wanted to get rid of her husband in favor of a preacher with more education, and that the leader of his faction was a school-teacher, Mrs. Curran Mitchell, of 1379 Quinn.

Although the woman had not attended church for a long time, Mrs. Peppers said, she came to the church business meeting, since it was rumored that Mrs. Mitchell, had joined another church. Rev. Peppers would not permit her to speak.

A deacon, Amos Fleming, told this newspaper, that Mrs. Mitchell mounted the rostrum and got into a heated argument with Rev. Peppers, about her membership, and that after church officials stepped between the two, the pastor was stricken and then carried to his study.

IGNORANT BUNCH
Deacon Fleming said that as Mrs. Mitchell went out of the church she mumbled something about "a bunch of ignorant" members.

Fleming said that there was some controversy about the pastor having taken some money from the church, "but that was not true, because three people have to sign before anyone can get any money from the church."

After Mrs. Mitchell got into an argument with Rev. Peppers, someone called the police and she was later arrested on a disorderly conduct charge, carried to City Jail and booked.

Mrs. Mitchell was released about 15 minutes later when her husband, George W. Mitchell, a deacon, posted $28 bond for her. Her case has been postponed until Nov. 19.

SHERIFF PRESENT

The pastor's funeral brought an overflow crowd to the church, and mourners stood in the balcony and in three aisles in the main auditorium.

Among the mourners was Sheriff M. A. Hinds, candidate for mayor, who entered the church with Lt. George W. Lee. The sheriff did not speak, but Lt. Lee mentioned that the sheriff and the late pastor had talked together recently.

Dr. Roy Love, pastor of Mt. Nebo Baptist church, was master of ceremonies for the funeral program.

Others on the program were Rev. O. C. Collins, who gave

DOWN FRONT!

COMMISSIONER CLAUDE A. ARMOUR did just the opposite of what a lot of people thought he would do when he appeared at the Police Ball last Friday night. They suspected that he would plug for his re-election. He did not even mention that he was seeking re-election. He praised the Negro officers highly in a strictly non-political speech.

A PIECE OF vicious Anti-NACP campaign literature might have loud repercussions after the election is over. Some legal minds are investigating the source of the dirt-sheet. It is reported that the names of several campaign workers in a certain headquarters will be revealed along with their claims as good "civil rights leaders."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK is — what size estate left by Madame G. S. Young, founder and owner of the Gorine Beautician College.

FIVE MILLION makes a difference whether it is people or dollars. Take the case of the arrival of Rev. T. J. Jemison here last Friday night, to address the Tennessee Regular Baptist convention. When a delegation of 45 Memphis ministers attempted to go through the gate to meet his plane at the new municipal airport, an attendant informed them that only two would be permitted to go thru the gate to the plane. Rev. A. E. Campbell let it be known that Rev. Jemison was the secretary of the National Baptist Convention Inc., USA, which had a membership of five million. Immediately permission was granted for the welcoming committee of 45 ministers to go out to meet the dignitary at the plane.

Zuber-Bynum Plays Host To 150 Children At Party

The Zuber-Bynum Council, an organization which provides entertainment and recreation for mentally and physically handicapped children of Memphis and Shelby County, gave its annual pre-halloween party at the Abe Scharff branch of the YMCA on the Saturday before the holiday.

Approximately 150 children attended. The atmosphere was filled with gaiety and colorfulness. Many children wore costumes, and prizes were offered to youngsters who came as Chinese, dragons, devils, ghosts, cats and witches. Refreshments included sandwiches, potato salad, corn sticks, ice cream and soft drinks.

Prizes of horns, masks, pumpkins, and candy were awarded to children in the most original costumes. Three received prizes as the best dancers.

A number of parents and teachers were present to assist with the games and feeding.

Council members present included Mrs. Myrtle Fisher, president; Mrs. Mary Telford, vice president and chairman of the project; Mrs. Minerva Hancock, business manager and treasurer; Mrs. Lillie Phillips, reporter, and Misses Ruby Brown and Margaret Bland.

Florida PTA Is Seeking Members

Florida School PTA is urging members to bring in at least one new member during the current membership drive.

Parents are also urged to attend PTA meetings. The PTA president, Mrs. Ophelia Spearman said that members are preparing to obtain the necessary equipment for the school's pupil.

Volunteers to help in the Oral Polio Vaccine project at Florida school are being solicited. Interested persons should call 948-2146. Also a talent and fashion show is being planned. The next meeting of the PTA is set for Thursday, Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. Principal of the school is Mrs. Callie L. Stevens.

Telephone Caller Prosecuted For Using Coin Slugs

A successful prosecution under Law prohibiting the use of slugs in coin telephones was secured in the U. S. District Court in Nashville on Friday, October 25.

William Edward Reynolds, 42, of Louisville, Ky., pleaded guilty to four counts of using slugs in coin telephones to make long distance calls. He was sentenced by U. S. District Judge William E. Miller to three year probation on each of four counts and ordered to make full restitution to Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The Federal Slug Law enacted by Congress last year carries a maximum penalty of up to one year imprisonment and a fine of up to $1,000 on each count.

NO PAIN AND NO POLIO

Young infants will receive the Sabin oral polio vaccine on Sunday, Nov. 10, like this young child, with a dropper, while young children will take it in a spoon or paper cup. Older children and adults will take it on a sugar cube saturated with the vaccine. The vaccine is tasteless and odorless. Every man, woman and child in Shelby County is urged to take the vaccine by the Memphis and Shelby County Medical Foundation. A donation of 25 cents is asked from those who can afford to pay, but is free to children and adults unable to pay.

5,000 Teachers To Attend WTT Congress In Jackson

Five thousand teachers are expected for a two-day session of the West Tennessee Teachers Congress, to be held November 7-8 in the auditorium of Lane college and Merry High School, in Jackson, Tenn.

"Reassessing Values for Quality Teaching" will be the theme of the meeting. The first day will be taken up with a welcoming and business session. On the second and final day — at 1:30 p.m. — Congress delegates will be addressed by Bert Ferguson, executive vice-president and general manager of Memphis WDIA radio station.

TIMELY THEME

"We could not have a more timely theme," said Cornell L. Wells, principal of E. A. Harold Junior High School, in Millington, and president of the Congress. "Never before has the Negro student had greater opportunities for self-advancement after graduation. But his self-advancement needs help and guidance. It is up to us — the teachers in West Tennessee, in Shelby County and in Memphis — to see that he gets it."

Platform guests at the West Tennessee Teachers Congress will be: Dr. Hollis Price, president, LeMayne college; Dr. W. S. Davis, president, A & I State university; Dr. Herbert White, president, Mississippi Vocational College; Dr. N. A. Crippens, president, State De-

Theme of the celebration is "Education Strengthens the Nation."

The school will hold open house after the program. Mrs. Lois M. Jenkins is chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Mildred T. Carver is the school's principal.

Four Named To Owen College's Trustee Board

Dr. S. A. Owen, chairman of the Owen college Board of Trustees and president of the Tennessee Baptist Missionary and Education Convention, has announced the election of four new members to the board of the college.

The newly elected trustees are Rev. W. C. Holmes, pastor of Beulah Baptist church; Atty. A. W. Willis, executive vice president of Mutual Federal Savings and Loan Association; Samuel M. Peace, president of Peace Realty company, and Dover Crawford, president of the Owen College Alumni association and head teller of the Tri-State Bank of Memphis.

The four were named to the Board at a meeting of the Tennessee BM & E Convention held in Chattanooga.

'Kaleidoscope' Will Be Season's Top Concert

"Kaleidoscope," a new musical package composed of four "Porgy and Bess" stars, will be presented by LeMayne this Friday night, Nov. 8, at 8:30 in Bruce Hall on the college campus. This promises to be the top concert of the season.

"Kaleidoscope" is a novel approach to the song recital, drawing upon the resources of modern stagecraft to create a tapestry of sight and sound. Rear-screen projection, spotlights, colors and light patterns used in sequence will add new and exciting dimensions to the concert.

Tickets to the concert are on sale at Goldsmith's Central Ticket Office and LeMayne's Business Office.

The four artists appearing in the concert are Irving Barnes, Martha Flowers, Doris Galiber and Garrett Morris.

THE STARS

Martha Flowers, described as "a singer's singer," is a friend of Metropolitan Opera Star Leontyne Price, holds degrees from Fisk University and the Juilliard School of Music, and has performed in 37 countries. Like other members of the quartet she has starred in several "Porgy and Bess" and "Carmen Jones" companies.

Doris Galiber, a strikingly beautiful girl with a very positive but gracious manner, is a native of the Virgin Islands. She is a graduate of Howard University and has studied voice under Madam Gurevich and Dr. Otto Herz in New York. She appeared overseas two years with the Robert Breen company of "Porgy and Bess" and later appeared in "Jamaica," "The King and I," "Carmen Jones," "Around the World in 80 Days" and "Thirteen Daughters."

Garret Morris, a graduate of Dillard University, has established a reputation for his fine singing and impeccable musicianship. He has studied acting and appeared in a number of legitimate theatre productions: "Porgy and Bess," "Double Entry," "The Egg and I," "Finian's Rainbow" and "The Silver Cord."

Irving Barnes, a native of Ohio, studied at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J., and he has worked in opera, concert, television, radio and the legitimate theatre. Besides playing the lead role in "Porgy and Bess," he lists appearances in "The King and I," "Finian's Rainbow," "Free and Easy," "Thirteen Daughters," "Our Lan," "Carmen Jones" and "Around the World in 80 Days."

FBI Nabs Escapee In Atlanta

ATLANTA — (UPI) — The FBI announced the arrest of Lee "Cadillac" Brown, a 40-year-old Negro who escaped from a federal work gang on a government-owned tractor.

Brown was taken into custody in downtown Atlanta. Agents refused to disclose how they picked up his trail.

The FBI said Brown made good his escape April 12, 1963 while assigned to honor farm No. 2, an extension of the Atlanta penitentiary, at Panthersville.

The tractor he rode to free-

THE Pulpit SPEAKS

REV. C. THOMAS PAIGE

"I need Thee every hour;
Teach me Thy will.
And Thy rich promises fulfill!"

(Dedicated to the Rev. Nathaniel A. Kennedy recently licensed to preach at the River-view Christian church.)

If life has anything to give to each of us, it is a fervor each of us should have for doing the Master's will. In our recent prayer meeting The Reverend Kennedy attended. Many choices of hymns were made during the course of the service. He asked the congregation to join him in singing, "I need Thee Every Hour." Hidden down in the third stanza we find the words "Teach me Thy will and Thy rich promises in me fulfill."

I am a strong believer in personal aspiration. I believe that no one can climb any higher than his personal deep-seated aspiration.

DO THE IMPOSSIBLE

Somewhere in the midst of all the horrors of this life must be some compelling force that make us do the impossible. The life for the minister is no different.

Something bigger and higher than himself must ever motivate him in a real spirit of achievement. As one reads and sings this hymn sees these words that make for him an unfailing impact to take on the character of Jesus.

Each one of us today must have something working through us. We must realize that we are but channels through which the expression to all that we have is given.

How Glorious it is that we realize our shortcoming and set out to seek the benefits of forces outside of ourselves that will enable us to grow and give expression to all that is worthwhile and has real meaning.

Each time we engage in the singing of this hymn we do nothing short of asking for fortification in this life of ours. Upon realizing the limitations of our physical lives we must look about ourselves to find some stabilizing force that will give real meaning to our lives. The life of this young minister must not only be punctuated with an outreach for power over and above himself but it is equally true if our personal lives will be that for which we are designed we too must make this hymn have real meaning for all who partake of its beautiful sentiment. Yes, we need Him every hour and the further we go the more we must realize that we need Him every hour.

Life is a constant intertangle of problems after problem. To overcome such a gigantic force at work against us, each of us must be anchored and fortified to the point that he can withstand every hostile force he encounters. This life of ours will never be self-sustaining but will always lead us in paths searching for forces that will enable us to withstand.

Fire Kills Children Of Sharecropper

WOODLAND, N.C.—(UPI)—Fire swept through the shanty of a sharecropper here, killing his five small children.

Willis Rawls Vaughan said he and his wife had gone to a neighboring house about 100 yards away to watch television after putting the children to bed about 7:30 p.m.

He said he checked the house twice and later spotted the flames about 10 p.m. But the fire, fanned by a stiff breeze, raced through the house and took the lives of the youngsters, ranging in age from two to 14.

A RECEPTION COMMITTEE

A reception committee of about 45 met Rev. T. J. Jemison at the Memphis Municipal Air Terminal when he flew here from New Orleans, La., last Friday afternoon to address the Tennessee Regular Baptist Convention which held its state convention at Golden Leaf Baptist church from Oct. 28 to Nov. 1. In the center of the front row are Rev. Jemison, secretary of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., USA, and Rev. A. E. Campbell of Memphis who is also an officer of the National Baptist convention. —(Photo by Ernest C. Withers)

Equality Next Hurdle For Negro: Professor

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala.—"Even when full political rights have been achieved, most Negroes will still be unable to cope successfully with the better educated, more socially stable white population with higher income," a Columbia University Professor of Economics said here last week.

One of six distinguished American scholars addressing the opening session of the Tuskegee Conference on Disadvantage, Dr. Eli Ginzberg stated: "The Negroes search for equality will be difficult. Political power, legal redress, and civil agitation are likely to speed the Negro toward this goal, but equality will still be far off."

He urged an audience of leaders in education, government, industry, labor and community affairs to "stop thinking of 20 million Negroes as one large uneducated, poverty-stricken, disadvantaged mass," indicating that more white men and women than Negroes are handicapped by an impoverished background.

He outlined a five-point program to help those who need help through improved education and training programs; expanded employment; establishment of new health and welfare programs and better housing.

Earlier at the conference, Tuskegee Board of Trustees Chairman Basil O'Connor said that the United States needs a "Marshall Plan for Negroes" to help equip them for life in a totally integrated society.

Other papers presented at the two-day conference were those of: James M. Dabbs, president of the Southern Regional Council; Dr. Donald J. Bogue, professor at the University of Chicago; Dr. Vivian Henderson, visiting professor at North Carolina State College; Dr. Carl Marburger, director of the Great Cities Project, Detroit, Mich.; and Dr. L. H. Foster, president Tuskegee Institute.

SERVING 1,000,000 NEGROES IN THE TRI-STATE AREA

Convictions Reversed

The action of the Supreme Court in overturning the convictions of 373 Negro students on charges of breach of the peace after a demonstration march in Orangeburg, S. C., should clear the air once and for all of the mist that had settled over the right to peaceful demonstrations.

The use of local state laws to halt perfectly legitimate petitions — demonstrations are a form of petitioning — can no longer be relied upon as a legal weapon.

The students' appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court was made after South Carolina's Supreme Court twice affirmed their convictions. In its first decision, the state court said that the demonstrators had no city permit to march. It said the police had to make arrests because of "very high tension on the part of Negroes and whites."

On March 18, 1963, the Supreme Court told the state court to reconsider the case in the light of a decision announced Feb. 25, 1963, that reversed convictions of 187 Negroes who demonstrated near the state capitol in Columbia.

The state court, however, said it adhered to its first decision and the convictions had to stand unchanged.

It was obvious that the demonstrators had been convicted for engaging in peaceful and orderly speech and assembly. The United States Constitution broadly provides for the exercise of this prerogative.

The Southern segregationists have been engaged long ago in the despicable act of trying to preserve their mores under the protective mantle of their own unjust laws.

When logic, vicious dogs and fire hoses fail them, they take refuge into local courts where their appeal to prejudice is given sympathetic hearing.

That day is ending. Federal laws are superseding local customs and ill-conceived ordinances. The right to demonstrate, to peaceable assembly and speech is now reaffirmed and clothed with the solemn garment of the Constitution.

That is as it should be. So long as people demonstrate peacefully, they should not be subjected to police brutality and/or restraining court injunctions. The Supreme Court has at last spoken clearly on this point. Let the segregationists everywhere, including Chicago, beware!

Strange Ways Of GOP Leaders

I AM fascinated by the ways of Republicans — some Republicans! A friend of mine said to me recently that he had heard a prominent Democratic officeholder declare:

"You would think that, just once in a while, the Republicans would forget and do something right on the race issue."

I think I know what he meant. Republicans — despite the fact they are still trying to get the Negro to vote for a ghost candidate — Mr. Lincoln — seem to have a talent for doing and saying the wrong things on the Negro question — or not doing or saying the right things.

It is interesting, for instance, that Mr. Eisenhower, less than a couple of weeks ago, decided to make a statement to the effect that the 1954 Supreme Court decision on school integration is morally correct.

When Mr. Eisenhower was a President, he refused repeatedly, to admit whether he believed this or not. He was willing to say that he felt it was his duty to enforce the decision. But he added that it didn't really matter whether he thought it was correct.

Well, we are happy that Mr. Eisenhower is finally on record. We knew, all along, that he believed in Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and motherhood and golf. Now we know that he believes the high court of our land was not

ALFRED DUCKETT

A Hipster's Fables -- No. 1

THIS IS the story of Goldilocks — a promising prima donna who lived in a neck of the American woods called The Senate.

It is also the story of the Three Bears.

Economic conditions not being what they were during the time of the original Goldilocks and the Three Bears, there was a lot of Moonlighting going on. Everyone was forced to have some sort of part-time job.

The Papa Bear, having received the blessing of some distant relatives who lived in a place known as Boston, had got himself the top spot in a White House in a place known as Washington.

The Mama Bear, to help make ends meet, was taking in light laundry for the Republican National Committee.

The Baby Bear — Dixie — was a problem. She had never quite grown up and had all sorts of internal complexes, being spoiled and most intolerant of others. TO THE credit of the Three Bears, it must be said that they attempted to maintain their family ties, even though Baby Bear often caused a lot of trouble by going into one of her tantrums which always upset the household.

Goldilocks was tired of living in the Senate and wanted very much to take over the White House gig.

One fine morning, the Three Bears got out of their beds, sat in their chairs and prepared to eat their usual morning porridge. What with incidents happening in Viet Nam and other interesting parts of the globe, the porridge was too hot to handle, so the Three Bears decided to take a walk to Berlin to give the porridge time to cool off.

While they were gone, Goldilocks came tripping through the woods and discovered the home of the Three Bears. She knocked on the door and when no one replied, decided to go in to sit down and try to figure out a platform.

She sat in the Father Bear's chair but it was much too high for her. She tried the Mother Bear's chair, but it was terribly hard. She sat in the Baby Bear's chair and it felt just right.

Goldilocks sniffed the porridge. She dipped a spoon into the Father Bear's porridge, but it was still awfully hot. She tasted some of the Mother Bear's porridge, but it was too cold. She sipped some of the Baby Bear's breakfast — and, by God, it was just right. So she ate it all up. Now, Goldilocks was tired.

that he has "serious doubt" that the most effective approach to civil rights is a "barrage of federal laws seeking to pinpoint and eradicate in one great sweep every possible item of discrimination." Such a program, he continues, "further complicates and emotionalizes an already highly charged issue; laws alone cannot produce the full result we need."

Well, personally, I give less than a you-can-guess-what that some white peoples' emotions are going to run rampant because we want to insure our freedom. Our emotions have run pretty high when we have seen, lynchings and our children bombed in churches.

As for the familiar crack about laws not being the end-all, I have to go along with Dr. Martin Luther King in observing that "laws cannot make the white man love me, but they can keep him from lynching me — and I think that's fairly important."

I think it is also important for the Negro people to keep a wary eye on the Republicans — some Republicans like Goldwater, Dirksen, Nixon and Mr. Eisenhower. In parting, let me remind General Eisenhower that if he had used gradualism and moderation on D-Day on the beaches of Europe, we wouldn't have to worry about civil rights. We just wouldn't be here.

Eisenhower, by the way, said in a "Saturday Evening Post" article,

TEACHER "IMAGES"

As has been said here before "this is a day of images." And for emphasis it's repeated in regard to the mental picture that the general public has of the average public school teacher.

Be it remembered that people have all kinds of images. Even the President of the United States has his "image" place in the minds of the people. To the average white Southerner he is probably the "image" of the Devil. To Negroes in the United States generally Mr. Kennedy's "image" is probably something between a "nice man" and a cherubim (a little angle to you, friend).

But putting aside any temptation toward levity, let's focus on school teacher "images" for a minute. After all, next week will be designated "American Education Week." And during the week there will be the expected discourses and printed commentaries on a flock of pertinent generalities.

ABOUT STATISTICS

But there will be several places where the "water hits the wheel."

For example, it will be pertinent to talk about the population explosion that is overloading classrooms . . . about the role of education in strengthening the over-all status of America . . . about the need for America to re-evaluate methods of financing the cost of public education . . . about what is being taught in classrooms to provide a background for effective battle against the menace of Communism . . . about "selling" the ideals of democracy to Americans . . . about statistics compiled to show that slow students dark (Negroes) and inferior teachers (Negroes) retard the progress of average pupils (white) and accelerated students (white and light-skinned Negroes) . . . and about the need for Americans to think more closely about the American ideal of universal education.

But the "teacher image" will be an overwhelmingly important and most pertinent aspect of American education. At least, it should be. And it probably won't be too much nor too intelligently discussed.

NEGRO TEACHERS

The Memphis Board of Education, for example is currently concerned with various aspects of the teacher image in the matter of hiring its Negro teachers. There exists a general idea that most local Negro teachers are not worthy of their salt. The idea stems from a variety of circumstantial developments, not the least of which being the understandably querulous attitude of the local NAACP chapter.

The Negro principals of Memphis . . . and Shelby county . . . are victims of this somewhat distorted "image." In some quarters it's charged that the principals are not exerting desired influences in directions that their positions command.

Put all these notions together, and there exists the Negro "teacher image." But be it also remembered that the white public teacher in Memphis or anywhere else in the nation, isn't exactly riding a "grave train" in the public's estimation of him or her.

Americans generally still seem to regard the elementary and high school teacher as "some kind of parasitical growth on the body politic which is easily expendable."

10 MINUTE TALKS

Even cab drivers are firmly convinced that their kind of knowledge and views are much more down to earth and far more practical and significant than anything any bookish teacher ever dreamed. And that's the unfortunate American image of the school teacher generally. Is there any wonder that the Negro public school teacher is "way out on the outside . . . and hardly able to look in?"

That's why it's necessary that something be done about this Negro teacher "image." That's why local Negro teachers owe the ministers of Negro churches in Memphis a vote of thanks for agreeing to allow speakers from the Bluff City Education Association to talk 10 minutes or less in their churches . . . come next Sunday, Nov. 10th . . . as a part of American Education Week. Now, whatchubet!

Mud-Slinging Masters

Political campaigns are known for their smut, soot, dirt and mud. Such are to campaigns as white is to rice, duck is to feathers or black is to night. Personally, I like a good fast-moving, rootin' tootin' political campaign.

I subscribe to the time-honored "dirt-digging" and "mud-slinging" political opponents wage against each other in combat as candidates. I can readily understand why opponents in the political arena would resort to parading the vices, inadequacies, disabilities, unqualifications of each other — both publicly and privately. After all — what candidate is going to sincerely parade the virtues of his opponent?

There is a lot of interest and pleasure derived from honorable candidates slugging it out in a hotly contested campaign. I subscribe to the idea that candidates subject themselves to public scrutiny whenever they enter or permit themselves to be enticed in the political arena. However, I think there is even a depth to which political candidates should not go to win offices. I think that candidates' records, reputations, ratings, etc. should be researched by their opponents. But — I do not subscribe to character assassination just for sadistic pleasure that might be derived from "murder in the political arena." There should be just and a rational reasons. Men who "murder" to obtain public office are unfit for public office.

CAMPAIGN WORKERS

Worse than sadistic candidates who would "murder" for the sheer pleasure experienced by "murdering" are persons who actively work in campaign organizations. Decency should dictate that a campaign worker who is not a candidate should leave the public "mud-slinging" dirty digging and the cruel "knifing" to the candidate himself — publicly or privately. Compilers and distributors of Scurrilous literature distributed are offenders of the worse sort. Scurrilous literature distributed by campaign workers for candidates can be "held against them." In the first instance it is not "smart politics" to hand your opponent a weapon with which he can beat you over the head. In the second instance — a campaign worker does not — in most cases — enjoy the immunity accorded candidates in charges and counter-charges. Candidates can emerge from a baptizing of a campaign's "mud-slinging" clean. Such is not the case of campaign workers.

RACE ISSUE

Candidates themselves have not publicly used the "race issue" to win or incur the disfavor of voters. Campaign workers — both Negro and white — have attempted to use the local NAACP and the White Citizen Council to inject racism in this campaign. I contend that neither the NAACP or the White Citizen Council is an "issue" per se in this campaign — and rightly not.

Yet a Negro headquarters campaign worker has injected the NAACP in the mayoralty race.

I would not advocate denying him the right to freedom of speech — freedom of the press (he gathered material to have it printed), nor can he deny me of the right to wonder about him talking out of both sides of his mouth at the same time. He has said he believes that "race" should not be made a campaign issue. Yet, he is a prime party in having it injected into this race.

Any citizen who willfully injects the race issue in this campaign does not have the interest of Memphis nor any of its citizens at heart. And by no means does a Negro who uses the race issue to promote a mayoralty candidate have the Negroes' progress at heart. He is a disservice not only to Negroes, but he is also a discredit to the harmonious progress being made in Memphis.

Esso Announces Gift Of $400,000 To UNCF

A special grant in aid to education to the United Negro College Fund was announced last week by the Esso Education Foundation. The terms of the grant allot $400,000 to the United Negro Colleges Development Fund in $100,000 increments over a period of the next four years.

The Foundation is supported by Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) and six of its affiliates: Humble Oil & Refining Company; Esso Research and Engineering Company; Jersey Production Research Company; Esso International Inc.; Humble Pipe Line Company; and Esso Standard Eastern, Inc.

In making the announcement, the Foundation pointed out that the nation's industrial strength can be materially increased by improving the education and training of Negro youth, thereby qualifying them for positions of greater responsibility.

The grant is being made to cooperate with the efforts of a nationwide citizen's committee to raise $50 million for Negro college development as urged by President Kennedy.

The Esso Education Foundation indicated that the announcement of the grant was being made earlier than the publication of the other grants of the Foundation's 1963-64 program. The early announcement of the special grant to Negro education is to coincide with the beginning of the United Negro College Development Fund's drive for funds.

Memphis Beautician Madame Young Buried

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Funeral services for Madame Gold S. M. Young, founder and president of Gorine College of Cosmetology and Physiotherapy and one of Memphis most outstanding business women, were held at Centenary Methodist church with the pastor, Rev. James M. Lawson, delivering the eulogy.

Madame Young, who had been in poor health for the past few years, died at E. H. Crump Memorial hospital.

Born in Mississippi, the seventh child in a family of 17 children, she was christened Gold and Silver Bell by her father.

Her father died in 1900 and left her as the oldest child to help support the others in the large family.

WORKED AT NIGHT

After only a few years of schooling, Madame Young was forced to go to work in the fields on a plantation near Greenwood. In order to increase the family's income, she "hot combed" the hair of women at night.

She purchased jars of petroleum jelly and later experimenting with a few mixtures, began using the special preparation in pressing hair. She also sold it to others, adding to the family's income.

Madame Young came to Memphis in 1913 to take classes at the Howard Institution and returned to Greenwood in 1914.

Five years later she purchased a two-story building at 432 Beale for $9,000 where she manufactured hair preparations and trained students in the art of beauty culture.

RECEIVED DEGREE

In 1921 she was given a degree in Cosmetic Therapy from the Moler college in Chicago. The same year she was elected a vice president of the National Beauty Culturist League and served four years before she was elected its president. The first public commencement of the Gorine College of Beauty was held in 1922, and since that time graduates of the school have gone out to staff beauty shops all over the country. By the time she was ready to retire, Madame Young's assets and property in Memphis alone were valued in excess of $100,000.

In 1955, Madame Young donated the school to it alumni. Her survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Alice Weston and Mrs. Norma J. Jones; a brother, Sylvester Bell of Essex, Mo.; two aunts, Mrs. Saumatha Ford and Mrs. Ida Barnes, and other relatives.

Asks N. O. School Bd. For Equality

NEW ORLEANS — (UPI) — A Negro education leader told the Orleans Parish (county) school board it had a "once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to achieve greatness" by correcting inequities in Negro public schools.

More than 700 Negroes attended the meeting, forcing the board to move to a nearby school auditorium. An estimated 200 still had to remain outside. Negro leaders had called for 10,000 of their race to attend the meeting.

Daniel E. Byrd, an education consultant, presented a petition drawn up by the social action committee of the New Orleans Parent-Teachers Association Council, a Negro group. He said the "facilities and opportunities offered to Negro students by the Orleans Parish School Board leave much to be desired."

He said Negro schools were overcrowded and Negro teachers had more pupils than white teachers, even though they had the same qualifications and experience.

"The Negro teacher to earn her salary, must do more," he said.

FBI Nabs Escapée In Atlanta

ATLANTA — (UPI) — The FBI announced the arrest of Lee "Cadillac" Brown, a 40-year-old Negro who escaped from a federal work gang on a government-owned tractor.

Brown was taken into custody in downtown Atlanta. Agents refused to disclose how they picked up his trail.

The FBI said Brown made good his escape April 12, 1963 while assigned to honor farm No. 2, an extension of the Atlanta penitentiary, at Panthersville.

The tractor he rode to freedom later was recovered off the government reservation.

Brown was sentenced to the federal penitentiary from the U. S. District Court at Montgomery, Ala., where he drew a four-year sentence for interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle.

Plan New Strategy For Fair Housing In Omaha

OMAHA, Neb. — (UPI) — A mass rally was scheduled at Zion Baptist Church to plan future strategy after a march on city hall by 2,000 Negroes.

The Citizens Coordinating Committee for Civil Liberties called the meeting to plan another demonstration at next Tuesday's city council meeting. The group is protesting the lack of an open occupancy housing ordinance.

The demonstration next week would be the fifth meeting in a row in which a demonstration was staged or attempted. There was no indication what type of demonstration would be held next week.

Negroes packed the council chambers, the city hall building and both sides of the street outside the building in a show of force. The 275-capacity chambers were filled 40 minutes before the council meeting began.

However, the demonstration was quiet in contrast to one the previous week in which 49 Negroes were arrested. Then, demonstrators stood up during the council meeting and began singing the National anthem and a civil rights song.

Leaders of the ACL group had asked for all 30,000 of Omaha's Negro population to leave their jobs and schools to join the demonstration. The 2,000 that did show up, however, was still a much larger crowd than anticipated by city officials.

Major James Dworak said he learned some of the schools let children attend the demonstration, and several pack-inhouses let workers off for the demonstration.

An Omaha school official, Asst. Supt. Owen A. Knutzen, took issue with Dworak on this point. Knutzen said "things were normal" in the schools.

After the 2½ hour demonstration, Dworak complimented the demonstrators for the orderly way in which they conducted themselves.

But he reminded them that no city councilman has indicated he would sponsor an open occupancy ordinance.

Leaders of the ACL group, the Revs. Rudolph McNair and Kelsey Jones, have pledged to continue demonstrating until open occupancy legislation is passed.

FREEZING SANDWICHES

When freezing meat sandwiches wrap each in an individual freezer bag or in freezer paper. Mixtures containing mayonnaise or salad dressing are usually best when not frozen, for separation of the mixture may result. Once a sandwich is defrosted it should not be refrozen.

Merry Go-Round

By MARJORIE I. ULEN

'Twas on so refreshing and invigorating to see evidences of the first light frost last week-end, to nudge our minds to the fact that with Halloween there's always the "frost on the pumpkin" to set the proper tone for the time-hallowed All Saints Day legend.

Last Saturday, too, saw the departure of popular MARTHA JEAN STEINBERG and her three beautiful daughters, Dianne, Sandra and Trienier via the airlines for the flight which removed them from residence in our city, since they will make now home in Detroit.

Memphis' loss of Martha Jean is Detroit's gain, for she will assume the hostess role of Radio Station WCHB's morning homemaker show, and become the station's emissary at social and civic functions in Detroit and its environs.

Her departure leaves a void in the staff of WDIA where she has been associated for 8 yrs. and her loss will be felt in the promotion and narration of fashion shows in the community and the Mid-South area.

The station, is located in Inkster, is owned by Dr. Hailey Bell and his son-in-law, Dr. Wendell Cox, the latter a frequent Memphis guest of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Ish, who heard her show here, and made necessary inquiries which led to a subsequent Detroit interview. She was the epitome of the image for which they had searched and it is the credit of our city that the search ended here.

It was a rather sad farewell, as the girls had to part with family and schoolmates they dearly love... but they looked forward to becoming better acquainted with the members of the Steinberg family who live in Detroit. For Dianne, there were the friendships to be cemented with sister Co-Ettes in the Detroit chapter.

On a previous trip to Detroit, Martha was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hailey Bell and Dr. and Mrs. Wendell Cox, who entertained in her honor. We are anticipating news of her warm personality, beauty and distinctive talent.

FALL VACATIONS
New England and Manhattan in October are lures which attract visitors, since they provide a special brand of social climate that is evident at no other season of the year.

For DR. AND MRS. WILLIAM O. SPEIGHT, JR., their eight day trip had special meaning in two varied directions.

The dates of October 20-25 were the dates of the meeting of the Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology at the New York Hilton, which they attended and the 26th was Parents Day at Yale University, where their son William (Billy) is a freshman. He is assigned to Ezra Stiles College, with residence in Vanderbilt Hall on the freshman compound of the old campus, which by the way, contrasts with the new campus which is Neo-Gothic in design.

The 26th was also the date of the Yale-Colgate football game at Yale Bowl in New Haven. There they had the pleasure of seeing the "Eli blue" win over Colgate... and in such a setting, one is in the midst of the proper climate, tradition and rivalry which befits the pigskin season.

Similar visitations were being made at all the other colleges of the university, each with its own headmasters reception and luncheon.

At Ezra Stiles college, they were guests at the reception given by Headmaster and Mrs. Richard B. Swell preceding the game where they greeted members of the college and visiting families from 11:15 until 12:30 where sherry and cocktails provided conviviality with intellectual restraint.

Following the reception, the calendar of events included a luncheon at the dining hall of the college, this too, before the exciting game.

Billy is one of 12 Negro students in the 1000 which comprise the Freshman Class at Yale this year. He is also doing very well in his studies, especially in French where he is No. 2 in rank in his class and in Mathematics.

Then for the Speights, it was back to New York that Saturday night after a happy day with their son. At the Hilton, they had the pleasure of the presence of MR. AND MRS. A. MACRO WALKER and former Memphis ERNEST EILAND and his charming wife DORIS of Washington, D. C. who were also announced at the same holstery.

During the days of the meetings and sessions, the girls were loose in Gotham to shop in those fabulous Fifth Avenue stores, to lunch in posh surroundings, and to partake of fine Broadway shows. Joined by their menfolk at night at interesting clubs, they enjoyed New York's Playhouse club, Carmen McRae at the Village Gate, the offerings of Bon Soir, and Luau 400 on smart East 57th Street.

One play particularly enjoyed was, "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way to the Forum," which has been a hit since last year.

Luckily also, the same weekend was the time appointed for The New York Urban League's Annual Subscription Dance, always held at the Rainbow, which is the 65th floor of the RCA Building in the heart of Rockefeller Plaza.

Here they chatted with Urban League Patron and benefactor Mollie Moon, friend to many Memphians, who with her well-known husband, Henry, were delighted to see Memphis friends. Rare treat too, Paris, France's "Toast of the Continent Century" and darling of Follies Bergeres, Josephine Baker, was a guest... her beauty defying age and searching eyes... vivacious, sevelte, glamorous femme fatale, perennial enigma to women everywhere.

PROUD CONGRATULATIONS
The entire community is proud of the signal honor which has come the way of DR. G. W. STANLEY ISH, JR., well-known Memphis surgeon, who was inducted into the American College of Surgeons along with 13 other Negro surgeons in San Francisco last week.

The auspicious gatherings witnessed the induction of 1,065 surgeons at San Francisco's Dell-Webb Townhouse and the Civic Auditorium. The meeting also set a new high in attendance records, with 12,480 members participating.

Dr. Ish was accompanied by his wife, Sue, and by his parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Stanley Ish, Sr. of Little Rock. The latter came to Memphis to join their son and his wife on the flight to San Francisco, where they were joined by Mrs. Ish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Barnett of Chicago.

This proud family contingent sated the honor of enjoying this crowning glory of professional recognition. During the stay at the meeting, Dr. Ish, Sr. celebrated his 80th birthday, and he and Mrs. Ish, Sr. were hosts at a dinner honoring our Dr. Ish. Also attending the dinner party held at the Imperial Palace were Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, Bill Allen, mutual friend and former accompanist of Singer Todd Duncan, his brother of Dr. Farrow Allen of New York, who with Mrs. Farrow Allen attended the meeting of the Surgeon sand were also guests at the Ish party.

All acquaintances of Dr. Ish, Sr. revere his gracious dignity, social aplomb and ageless grace, and know too, his keen preceptive mind which has resulted in his distinguished years of practice in surgery at Little Rock, Ark. He is also an eloquent joy and pride in the accomplishment of professional success which was not his attain in his day, inasmuch as it is only been since 1945 that Negro surgeons have been admitted to the august body, and since 1937 that surgical standardization and accreditation took place.

Dr. Ish, Sr. is a graduate of Harvard Medical College and he chose to remain in The South and to work in the community of his parents who were all pioneer college graduates, educators and businessmen, thereby lessening his chances for professional recognition because to limited opportunity due to existing which dimed opportunity and stultified professional attainment.

During the meeting live TV of operations performed was held at the University of California, at Berkeley, via closed circuit.

DELTA MOTHERS
MRS. ETHEL DOUGLASS OF 1293 South Parkway, East was hostess to the meeting of Delta Mothers. Delta Mothers are working toward another scholarship for a worthy student of LeMoyn College. The meeting also saw the final report of Mrs. Estelle Campbell as treasurer who has resigned due to ill health. Mrs. Ruth Anderson was elected to fill the office of the treasurer.

Members were glad to hear of the improvement of Mrs. Clara Parks, who has been ill in E. H. Crump Hospital. Members attending were Mrs. Mary Lindsey, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Roberta Thomas, Mrs. A. B. Spraggins and Mrs. W. O. Speight, Sr.

Memphis Co-Ettes Select; Initiate 13 New Members

With pride and enthusiasm, the Memphis Chapter of the Co-Ette Club, Inc., selected and initiated their new members during the week of October 13.

The Co-Ettes, well known to Memphians as busy, industrious young ladies, are part of a national chain, having chapters in Detroit, Nashville, Chicago and Houston.

The group has chosen two national projects to which they devote most of their time and energy. In the past four years, the Memphis Co-Ettes have contributed $2,500 to the United Negro College Fund, and are buying a Life Membership into the NAACP.

It is evident that the thirteen new girls as well as their "big sisters" are ready to begin another year of concentrated, dedicated effort.

NEW MEMBERS
The thirteen new members, officially dubbed as "Miss Prissies" during the initiation period, brought the chapter's total membership to twenty-eight.

The new Co-Ettes are: Rose Bell, niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parker; Joyce Cochran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Cochran; Delaune Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Graham; Sheila Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Grant; Clarice Hobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hobson; Muriel Horne, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. ## YOUNG MISS PRESENTED

Little Miss Arvis Finley, nine year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finley who reside on Stonewall St., was presented in a piano recital on Sunday, October 27 at 4 p.m. at First Baptist church in Jackson.

This very talented young miss, a student of Mrs. Arva Hildreth Robinson, played such selection as "Waltz of the Forest Sprite," "Krieg Op 121," No. 25, "Bohemian Dance" by Weber, "The Kaleidoscope" by Matthews, "Fluttering Leaves" by Koelling Op 147, No. 2, and many other favorite numbers which included 15 in all committed to memory.

Those who had the privilege of hearing her sat spellbound and could only remark after the performance that a future concert pianist was certainly in the making. A reception followed in the church assembly room.

LIBRARIANS AT MEET

Mrs. Mable B. Davis and Mrs. Arminta Marshall, librarians at Merry Jr. and Sr. High School, journeyed to Memphis, Tenn. on Saturday, Oct. 26 to attend a workshop for school librarians at Memphis State University.

The group of West Tennessee librarians were welcome by Dr. Richardson, dean of the college. Miss Louise Meredith, Supervisor of Libraries and Instructional materials for the state of Tennessee gave the "Current Picture of School Libraries" in the state before discussions were held on "Selection of Materials" and "More Effective Library Service to Pupils and Teachers" on both the high school and elementary level. They both report that much was gained by their participation in the workshop.

HUMBOLDT NEWS

NEW UNIFORMS

When you pause to admire the beautiful uniforms of our band, performers, it would be well to ask yourself if you have made a contribution to help with the enormous cost. It is a community project worth considering. You will be of yourself if the answer is "yes."

A "Powder Puff" football game was played at Stigell recently with only women participating, either as coaches or players. Mesdames Barnett and Nunn with Misses Henning and Tucker were the coaches, but men were used as referees for special reasons.

Mrs. Velva Pulliam was chairman of concessions and Mrs. Croom chairman of publicity.

The game proved to be quite an attraction, and the players were not as weak as women are noted to be.

ATTENDS FUNERAL

Mrs. Cottrell Thomas spent a weekend in Cleveland, Ohio, attending the funeral of Mr. Richard Skipper, a relative. She returned home by way of Ann Arbor, Mich., to see Deborah, her little adopted daughter, and to say hello to the Paul Fly family.

Deborah sent a big hello to the girls and boys with whom she used to play, and she hopes to be back in Humboldt very soon.

Mrs. Vance attended the annual meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Missionary and Education Convention in Chattanooga, and reports that it was one of the best with Rev. Brooks, pastor of New Zion Baptist church, as host pastor.

CHURCH BLOWS UP!

After the terrible explosion that blew up Mt. Zion church, the meeting was held in his home church, Second Baptist. Making credible appearances from our section were Rev. C. M. Houston of Milan, who preached a very inspirational sermon, and Rev. Nesbie Alston, who serves in the Salem community.

Rev. Alston gave the response to the welcomes extended by the mayor and other officials of the city.

The program was very interesting and more than $16,000 was raised for Owen college in Memphis.

RAISE $600

The local people entertained every department of the Convention and corsages were given to all ladies in key positions. West Tennessee's Mrs. A. Terrell captured the prize in the Mary Hamilton Rally with $600 to her credit. Mrs. Vance, who is director of music for the Convention, was accompanied by Miss Shirley Bennett of Brownsville.

Mr. Elege Curry, a life-long resident of this city passed away Friday, October 25. He lived at 904 9th Avenue. He was a highly respected neighbor and citizen, and a member of St. James Baptist church under the pastorage of Rev. J. T. Freeman. He leaves to mourn his passing: a wife, Mrs. Hattie Curry, two sons, Huey T. Curry, of Humboldt, Elege Curry Jr. of St. Louis, Mo., five brothers, nine grandchildren, and twelve great grandchildren.

Mrs. L. B. Croom, was Woman's Day Speaker, recently at St. Paul Baptist Church, Lexington, Tennessee. Last year on the third Sunday she delivered the Woman's Day message to the St. Paul Baptist women there.

50 Fight Jim Crow In Lexington, N.C.

LEXINGTON, N. C. — (UPI) — About 50 Negroes staged an anti-segregation protest march and prayer in this Central North Carolina town where a white mechanic was shot to death during racial rioting last June.

WARRIOR AND WILDCATS

Booker T. Washington halfback Charles Willis (20), is shown running back a kick in the third quarter of the BTW-Melrose game last Friday night. In hot pursuit are two unidentified Golden Wildcats. The BTW Warriors took the game from previously unbeaten Melrose 21 to 18.

From 'Civies' To Army Greens

Two young Memphis men embarked upon a new career last week. They joined the Army. Stanley Richardson, 878 Fourth St., a former supermarket employee, exchanged his butcher's apron for the Army greens. F. H. Scales, is following in the footsteps of his uncle, Robert Askew.

Richardson 18, is the son of Mrs. Josie Richardson, 602 Peabbles Ave. Both men take their basic training at Fort Polk, La., and will then receive their Army assignment. Richardson is looking forward to being sent to an infantry unit. A 1963 graduate of Mitchell High School, Richardson was Sergeant at Arms on the Student Council.

Scales 18, decided to make the U. S. Army his career. He enlisted in the Army for three years at ceremonies conducted at the U. S. Army Recruiting Main Station, Kennedy VA Hospital.

The son of Mrs. Roberta Scales of 1099 Bammel St., he is a 1962 graduate of Manassas high school. His ambition is to become a paratrooper in one of the Army's crack airborne outfits. "I'm going to work hard to qualify for jump school," he said.

NAACP To Challenge 3 Florida Laws On Race

The NAACP Legal Defense Fund has taken the case of Dewey McLaughlin, Negro, and Connie Hoffman, white, charge with living together in Miami Beach, Fla., to the U. S. Supreme Court and will seek to strike down three Florida laws, according to Jack Greenberg, director-counsel of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

"Our jurisdictional statement, field Oct. 28, asserts that use of these laws provokes three questions," Greenberg said. "Is the Fourteenth Amendment violated where: (1) The state has created a crime expressly defined in terms of race which punishes Negroes and white who engage in certain conduct together, but does not forbid such conduct engaged in by Negroes only or whites only? (2) Common law marriage is a defense for a couple charged under Florida law, but was unavailable to appellants because Florida prohibits marriage between Negroes and whites? (3) Florida's purported definition of 'Negro' and 'white' person — an essential element of the crime — is so vague and indefinite as applied as to afford no fair warning to appellants or standard of criminality for the court or jury?"

The NAACP Legal Defense Fund brief argues that "stripped of emotional overtones, the case is simple indeed. 'Who would doubt that the equal protection clause would invalidate a scheme of laws providing that it was a crime for automobiles occupied by Negroes and whites to exceed 25 miles per hour, but providing no speed limit for any other automobiles,' the brief continued."

SPORTS HORIZON

By BILL LITTLE

Tennessee A&I State's homecoming game is traditionally held on Thanksgiving, this year is no exception. The Tigers have booked Lanston for Turkey Day. However, it appeared that most of the alumni chose to return for the Florida A&M battle. Some TSU rooters came from as far west as Kansas City to see the big upset over the Rattlers.

RATTLE OVER CONFIDENT

Coming to Nashville after blasting Morris Brown 66-0, an eleven A&I State was lucky to edge, certainly didn't give Florida much to get worked up about. Many of the TSU students mentioned how the large Florida A&M entourage went about the campus exhibiting an air of superiority. Behind the scenes, State's coaching staff had spent many hours of preparation for the feared Rattlers. Perhaps the most conspicuous bit of strategy was psychological. Encased on the bulletin board in the Tigers' dressing room were news clips telling of the feats of the deadly Rattlers. Underlined in red for emphasis were such Florida stalwarts as all-American quarterback candidate Jim Tullis, speedy Bob Hayes and end Al Denison.

At 5:45 p.m. the day of the game, A&I coach, John Merritt, was found in his gym-located office puffing a big cigar. He was asked about the six Memphis players on TSU's roster: "I know four Memphis boys will play," Merritt pointed out. According to "Big John," State's "salvation is in Memphis boys where the best football is played."

TSU GAME PLAN

Not at all optimistic about his team's chances against Jake Gaither's favored Rattlers, Merritt announced his plan of attack. "We'll try to beat them at the start. They don't come back very good. Frankly they haven't had to."

The game had a tremendous build up. At 7:10, a highway patrol helicopter with its sides painted "hold that line," flew over the stadium and dropped the game ball. Along with the team captains there was quite an assembly at mid-field for the toss of the coin by referee, Dr. Sam Shepherd. Track stars Ralph Boston, Wilma Rudolph and Vivian Brown and the Tennessee queen represented the home team. The Florida queen and Hayes were spotlighted among the visitors. Miss Rudolph was presented as the world's fastest woman and her male counterpart Hayes as the fastest human.

The 14-12 victory was as spectacular as the pre-game and halftime festivities. The game was decided on a 92 yard twisting run with a Florida

MELROSE'S BALL

The Golden Wildcats of Melrose made a strong effort to keep their position at the top of the Memphis Prep League, but the Booker T. Washington Warriors took the game last Friday night to tie it up. Here a Golden Wildcat, Henry Bridgeforth (14), carries the ball behind his interference as he makes a sizeable gain for Melrose in the second quarter. Rushing in on the ball carrier are Jim Slaughter (30), Walter Collins (10), and Jerry Smith (33), all Booker Washington backfield men.—(Photos by Billy Duncan)

Warriors Tame Golden Wildcats To Give Melrose First Loss Of Season; 6,000 Watch

Oscar Reed, wearer of the golden shoes, and Eddie Richards' toe were parlayed by punt by freshman Nolan Smith.

Celebrating was short-lived for Merritt who had begun to shiver at the thought of his next opponent, undefeated Southern. Bob Lee's Jaguar Cats made State, Southern's seventh straight victim last Saturday night, 21-9, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

HAVE GUNS CAN'T TRAVEL

Rust's homecoming game against Memphis Doug Porter's Mississippi Vocational Delta Devils turned out to be a 40-0 embarrassment; however, the humiliation had started hours before the day game got underway.

The confusion started when Rust invited to Holly Springs, Mississippi, the Hamilton High School NDCC drill team to march in the homecoming parade. The sheriff said the boys could participate but their rifles had to be left on the Rust campus.

When deprivation is a mainstay for survival, and especially with Oxford nearby to serve as a reminder, it's hard to be fair or rational even if it only involves a dozen or so impotent rifles.

Booker T. Washington to send the once proud Melrose Golden Wildcats to a 21-18, heart-breaking defeat last Friday night before an estimated overflow Melrose Stadium crowd of 6,000. Melrose went into the game with a 6-0 league record.

Washington jumped out in front in the opening moments of the game and was never headed; however, it was a third quarter gamble which backfired, that later came back to haunt Coach Eldridge Mitchell and his "marvelous Cats."

Reed scored two of the Warriors' touchdowns and carried the burden of their running attack. Quarterback Ronald Ester scored the winning touchdown but it was Richards' three unerring extra-point boots that proved the difference.

THE START

When Reed drove through the middle and over the goal line from the eight after Washington had pounced on an early Melrose fumble, it looked like the start of something big.

A rout was averted as Melrose used two long scoring passes to keep the pressure on the keyed up Warriors. Of the 14 passes thrown by three Melrose throwers, only two were completed. Ironically, both went for touchdowns. Another completion was nullified because of penalty. Washington completed none of its six pass attempts.

Melrose quarterback Melvin Williams hit halfback Jimmy Ward with a short pass near the sidelines after the first Washington score. The confused secondary chased Ward 79 yards to paydirt. The first of three conversion tries failed.

In the fourth quarter, with Melrose trailing 21-12 and Bobby Smith grabbed a short Hank Bridgeforth pitch in the flat and raced 80 yards untouched to keep his mates in the game. The two defenders covering the elusive Smith both went for his fake to the inside.

DETERMINED TEAM
Knowing they needed a win to get a share of the Prep League championship, Washington drove over the muddy turf with pile driving determination. The Warriors took the kick off after Melrose had dented its goal line and marched 70 yards to score. Reed culminated the drive after nine plays with a one foot plunge. Reed carried seven times and Richards twice. Reed's 20-yard scamper put the ball just shy of the goal. Richards kicked his second point.

Before the half, Melrose made the count 14-12, and threatened to take the lead before Reed intercepted a stray pass. Williams scored from 12 inches out but when the Warriors stopped Leroy Moton short attempting the extra point, Melrose was faced with having to score again to offset the conversions registered by Washington.

Melrose opened the second half by filling the air with passes but to no avail; then came the moment of decision. With the ball near midfield, Melrose sent its punter, Elbert Rich, back in a deep kicking position on fourth down and inches to go. Washington threw the Melrose punter for a short loss.

WARRIORS SLOW DOWN

Only the expiration of the third quarter slowed the Warriors down. Ester, after faking to Reed, went 12 yards for the touchdown on a bootleg around right end. Again Richards split the uprights to give Washington a nine point lead.

Smith's run for a touchdown gave the Warriors the jitters and Melrose recovered a fumble a few plays after the kickoff. The Warriors stopped Melrose on its own 20 and the fans were treated to some real ball hawking as the Warriors ran for their lives. Except for one carry by Richards, Reed was given the ball every time until Washington had driven to the Melrose 14.

Four carries by Reed and the ball was across midfield. A personal foul moved it in good scoring position with less than three minutes to play. A delay penalty threw the Warriors off stride and with the ball pushed back to the 26, Washington appeared satisfied with its scant margin as Richards went back to punt.

Southern's Jaguars Rally During Final Quarter To Stop TSU 21-9

By EARL S. CLANTON III

BATON ROUGE, La. — A come-from-behind fourth stanza rally staged by Southern university's Millard Neyland and Al Haymond kept the Jaguars on the undefeated list (7-0) as the Bayou eleven clawed Tennessee State's grid-ers 21 to 9 before 9,700 here in University Stadium last Saturday night.

Trailing at intermission 6 to 7, Coach John Merritt's Big Blues forged ahead 9 to 7 in the third period when Fletcher Smith tied a field goal from Southern's 8. Senior tackle Charlie Harris recovered Jaguar quarterback Alfred Simpson's fumble on Southern's 37 setting up the field goal.

The ball was powered to the 8, sandwiched between a 21-yard aerial to Bill Tucker from Dave Boone.

TAKE LEAD

Southern took half of the final canto to generate their game-leading tally. The Jaguar defenses backed the Tigers to their own goal line, forcing Boone to punt from his own seven on third down. Southern took over on Tennessee's 33 and Neyland powered the ball down to 13 in five plays. Simpson hit Frank Pitts on the one from where he bulled his way in for the tally.

Capitalizing on miscues, Southern's end Richard Jackson downed Boone attempting to punt on a fourth down play on Tennessee's 20. Simpson bolted over from the two capping the 20-yard march in seven carries to add an insurance touchdown with 2:55 left in the game.

"The kids played a great game for three and one-third quarters," Coach Merritt who is now 3-3 on the season analyzed after the game. "They made the mistakes that freshmen will, and we did not expect them to go through this ball game without making some. Southern capitalized on the kids' mistakes."

TOO MANY INJURIES

"With starters guard Billy Stevens, fullback Israel Lang, and flankerback Willie Mitchell suffering with injuries, we were hurt," Merritt continued.

Next week the Big Blues go after their second conference win as they tackle Lincoln university in Jefferson City, Mo. The Merrittmen are 1-0 in conference play and can clinch a tie for the Midwestern conference crown with a win against Lincoln.

Southern struck paydirt with just 2:12 gone in the first quarter as halfback Haymond flied a Boone pass and raced 42 yards for the touchdown. John Clayton booted the first of three extra points to send the Jaguars ahead 7 to 0.

It took six minutes of the second period for the Merrittmen to capitalize on their first of three extra points to send the Jaguars ahead 7 to 0.

It took six minutes of the second period for the Merrittmen to capitalize on their first-half domination of the ball game before they could score. But Freshman quarterback Howard Finley flicked the 6-yard aerial to Maurice McDonald for the tally.

LIMIT SOUTHERN

Starting on their own 18, Boone hit Nolan Smith for three first downs and spiced the drive with a 21-yard keeper before he was lifted for Finley. Holding the ball for 52 plays while limiting Southern to 18 tries, the Big Blues drove inside the Jaguars' 25 four times, getting to the 11 once, other than their scoring drive.
